

THE SECC

The Scottish Exhibition + Conference Centre is situated on a 64 acre site on the banks of the River Clyde and located only 5 minutes from the city centre.

Designed by Sir Norman Foster, the venue is purpose built and distinctive. It has an enviable reputation for hosting international conferences, many with accompanying major exhibitions.

Technical facilities throughout the complex are of the highest standard. Sound, light and audio-visual systems are all computer managed using fibre optic technology for professional and stress-free presentations.

The Centre itself has comprehensive catering facilities and 3 on-site hotels. Restaurants, banking and medical facilities are incorporated or close by.

For more information please visit www.ectsoc.org

ACCOMMODATION

There are over 17,000 rooms in the Metropolitan Glasgow area. All are within easy reach of the conference venue. Choose from international 5 star resorts, attractive boutique style properties or budget and university accommodation.

SOCIAL PROGRAMME

An exciting programme is being planned for Glasgow.

The conference will open in style with a welcome reception. This event is free to all delegates, providing excellent networking opportunities, as well as the chance to catch up with old and new acquaintances over a glass of wine.

Day tours can include visits to Stirling Castle, Loch Lomond and Edinburgh, as well as a city tour of Glasgow, featuring the award-winning visitor attraction, the Burrell Collection.

A pre or post-congress tour can visit the Highlands and the Isle of Skye, taking in Loch Lomond, Glencoe, Loch Ness, the Spey Valley, distilleries and Scone Palace.

The opportunity to blend tradition, culture, scenery, retail therapy and the famous Scottish hospitality will make your visit an unforgettable experience.

Additional events will be organised giving delegates an opportunity to taste the unique and exciting atmosphere of Glasgow and Scotland.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE GLASGOW AREA, PLEASE VISIT WWW.SEEGLASGOW.COM

Glasgow:
Scotland with style®

37TH EUROPEAN SYMPOSIUM ON CALCIFIED TISSUES SECC, GLASGOW, SCOTLAND 26-30 JUNE 2010

WHY GLASGOW?

- GLASGOW
Scotland's cultural and shopping capital
- ACCESS
Three international airports with direct flights from Europe, Middle East and North America
- COMPACT CITY
Easy to get around with a comprehensive public transport network
- TASTE OF SCOTLAND
Over 800 restaurants and bars
- GATEWAY TO SCOTLAND
The Highlands, golf, distilleries and Loch Lomond, all within 35 minutes

THE CITY

At the heart of Scotland, Glasgow is undoubtedly one of Europe's most dynamic cities: steeped in culture, rich in history, with its elegant streets, squares, parks and gardens.

Glasgow has the finest civic arts collection in the UK, including the works of Botticelli, Degas, Van Gogh and Rembrandt to whet your appetite. All 27 museums are free.

Glasgow, the first UK city to be a Cultural Capital of Europe, is home to Scottish Opera, Scottish Ballet and the Royal Scottish National Orchestra.

SCOTLAND

Take time to sample the magic of Scotland. Just 35 minutes from the city centre you will find yourself in the heart of some of Scotland's most breathtaking scenery. Uncover surprises and visual rewards at every turn. Explore ancient castles, quaint distilleries, lochs and glens and miles of unspoilt coastline.

For the more energetic there are superb sailing waters and famous salmon and trout rivers to fish.

And of course, there's golf. The world-renowned championship courses of St Andrews – 'the home of golf', Muirfield, Turnberry, Royal Troon and Loch Lomond are on your doorstep.

37TH EUROPEAN SYMPOSIUM ON CALCIFIED TISSUES

The European Calcified Tissue Society (ECTS) is delighted to be holding its 37th Symposium in the city of Glasgow. The 2010 meeting will offer a high quality scientific programme of interest to both clinical and basic scientists. We are expecting around 3000 delegates to attend.

Highlights will include the following:

- An exciting programme of invited speaker lectures featuring some of the world's leading experts in the field
- Meet the professor sessions
- Dedicated allied health professionals session
- Joint ECTS-ASBMR debate
- A high proportion of submitted abstracts selected for the oral programme
- Well-attended poster sessions with dedicated poster viewing time
- Company-supported satellite symposia reviewing some of the latest developments and research
- Satellite ECTS training course

Please visit our website at www.ectsoc.org for regular updates and further information.

GETTING TO AND AROUND GLASGOW

Glasgow International Airport is located just 15 minutes from the city centre and has flights from 100 destinations. There are over 40 flights per day from London. Glasgow Prestwick Airport is 45 minutes away by train. Edinburgh Airport is located just 40 minutes from Glasgow.

Glasgow's compact city centre and grid system is easily walkable, and the highly developed public transport network of train, bus and underground systems provide economic and efficient options for visitors to get around.

